

It has been said
"There's nothing new under the sun,"
But we have it, and are introducing the little wonder in this locality.
It's a Gem,
and you should call and get acquainted.
Special introduction this week to heads of frugal families.
They need it!

The Lizzie Bay for Pomeroy to-night and the Sunshine down.

The steamer M. P. Wells, owned by the Edgington Bros. and chartered to the White Collar line, was tied up at Cincinnati by the United States Marshal on a claim of over $300 back salary due Ed. Smith, formerly clerk on the boat.

The license of Capt. John E. Edgington, of the M. P. Wells, was suspended Friday for one month because the boat which he had charge of left Cincinnati without a licensed engineer early last week. The regular man was sick and efforts to comply with the law was made, but no engineer with a license could be found, so another without one was shipped up.

Attention, Sir Knights.

WILLIAM TROUT, JR., E. C.
L. C. Blatterman, Recorder.

Elder Buckingham made the address at the McKinley memorial services at Washington last Thursday evening, and it was pronounced by all who heard it a masterly effort. He had known the late President in Ohio, and could speak of him understandingly. He paid a beautiful and feeling tribute to McKinley, and in speaking of his assassination, said it was about the most dastardly and wanton crime in all history. He further declared that assassination, whether of a President of a republic or of a Governor of Kentucky, was the greatest crime of the times, and must be put down at any cost or expenditure.

SENATOR HANNA SILENT.

He is Done With Being Interviewed For All Time.

Cleveland, Sept. 23.—Asked to make a brief statement as to how he regarded the policy of President Roosevelt so far as it had been expressed and what sort of an administration he believed the new president would give to the nation, Senator Hanna said: "I am done with being interviewed for all time."

"Have you decided not to again publicly express your opinion?"

"No more," was the brief answer.

The senator is broken by the tragedy at Buffalo, and his face shows how deep grief has left its mark.

Somebody has explained the significance of the editorial "we." It may have a variety of meanings. For example, when you read that "we expect our wife home to-day," "we" refers to the editor; "we are a little late with our work" includes the whole office force, even down to the devil and the towel; in "we are having a boom" the town is meant; "we received over 7,000 emigrants this year" embraces the nation; "we have hog cholera in our midst" means the man who takes the paper and does not pay for it is very ill.—Griffin (Ga.) News.
